

White Matte Residential Warranty

Terms and Conditions

- This warranty applies only to White Matte's materials that have been permanently installed in the interior of single-family residences and have not been moved from their original installation.
- This warranty applies only to materials that have been maintained according to the White Matte Quartz Care & Maintenance guidelines (See below). Care & Maintenance guidelines are available at www.whitematte.com. To request service under this warranty you must first contact the company who sold you your White Matte within (30) days of failure. Please also have your proof of purchase available.
- Following installation, you must register your White Matte within thirty; (30) days or the warranty is void.
- This Residential Lifetime warranty is limited to the original purchaser of the product. In newly constructed or remodeled single-family residences where White Matte was installed. The warranty is available to the original owner and resident and is non-transferable.
- All decisions regarding this warranty are at the sole discretion of White Matte. No representative, dealer, salesperson, distributor, fabricator, or other persons are authorized to make any warranty or promises on behalf of White Matte with respect to White Matte products. If it is determined by White Matte that our White Matte materials failed due to a manufacturing defect, White Matte will, at its sole discretion, repair or replace such materials. White Matte will strive to obtain the best possible resolution. The decision to repair or replace is at White Matte's sole discretion and an exact color match is not guaranteed.

What is not covered under this warranty?

- Any residence where the owner is not the occupant.
  - Materials and/or services that have not been paid for in full.
  - Use in any commercial application. Commercial use includes but is not limited to, use in stores, rental properties, offices, or any other place of business.
  - Product installed in any outdoors application.
  - Product used as flooring material.
  - Improper use or abuse including but not limited to, damage from mishandling of the product, damage from excessive heat or uneven exposure to weather conditions, sun fading, physical or chemical abuse, and damage from improper care and maintenance.

- Chips at edges or other areas caused by impact damage.
- Scratches. White Matte is highly scratch resistant but is not scratch proof. Proper care must be exercised including the use of a cutting boards as part of your care and maintenance.
- Routine maintenance including but not limited to, minor conditions such as removing stains and water spots by following the techniques specified in the White Matte Care & Maintenance Guidelines. (See below).
- Failures due to fabricators/installers not following the prescribed fabrication and installation procedures as outlined by the Natural Stone Institute of America. Improper fabrication and/or installation is the sole responsibility of the fabricator and/or installer.
- Defects that were visible at the time of fabrication and were not avoided during fabrication. Fabricators are required to perform a visual inspection of all materials prior to fabrication and again prior to installation.
- Seam appearance and performance, adhesives, caulk, or other accessory items. Once the product is installed, the two main reasons for seam separation or cracking are the shifting or movement of the substrate, cabinets or foundation, and thermal shock. Thermal shock can occur when a hot pan, dish or other receptacle or object is left on the countertop for more than a brief period. Trivets or hot pads should always be used. These issues are not considered material defects and are subject to proper care and maintenance by the owner.
- Chemical damage.
- Creative use of the material such as thermal bending or curving.
- Material that has been reduced in thickness.
- Securing mechanical fasteners directly into the material.
- Failures due to inadequate support for the installation.

- Transportation, freight, tear out, demolition in any form or associated cost beyond the cost of the product.
- Natural variations in the color, size, shape, and distribution of the pattern of the quartz or the natural variations in background tone. These are inherent characteristics of the product. Color samples provided to consumers, dealers and fabricators are only representative and not an exact replication of what will be installed in your home.
- Spots or blemishes on mono colors smaller than a U.S. ten (10) cent coin and on multi-colored materials smaller than a U.S. Quarter (25) cent coin. A certain level of spots or blemishes are inherent in the manufacturing process and do not affect White Matte structural integrity or performance therein.

- White Matte materials contain important product information on the back of each slab. Removing this product information will void the warranty.
- White Matte. is not responsible for damage or injury caused in whole or in part by acts of God, job site conditions, and architectural/engineering design, and structural movement, acts of vandalism or accidents.
- White Matte shall not be responsible in either contract or tort for any loss of direct, indirect, consequential, incidental, special, exemplary, or punitive damages arising out of the use or the inability to use the products covered by this warranty. Some states do not allow exclusion or limitation of incidental damages, so the above limitations or exclusions may not apply to you.
